DR. FRAZIER'S ROOT BITTERS.

The above wonderful medicine is, as its name indicates, strictly a Bitters or Blood Cleanser, made from roots, combined with herbs and plants, such as are found in Nature's garden. I first used Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters myself for weakness of the lungs, catarrh and scrofula in the system, which broke out in pimples and blotches, and after doctoring with physicians and trying advertised medicines (including Sarsaparilla) without finding relief my discovery effected a complete cure. Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram shop whiskey beverage, but are strictly medical in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerve and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity. For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as ever I did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest of blessings. MRS. M. MARTIN, Cleveland, O.

Sold by all druggists everywhere at $1 per bottle. HENRY & CO., Sole Prop'rs, Cleveland, O. John E. Groff, Agt., Newport, R. I. G. C. Goodwin & Co., Wholesale Agt.'s, Boston, Mass. je15-eod-m&s

FROM ALBANY.

THE EIGHTEENTH JOINT BALLOT.

RESULT OF SATURDAY'S VOTE FOR UNITED STATES SENATORS.

Wheeler Still Leading Conkling.

SPINOLA'S BURLESQUE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE JOINT CONVENTION

The Deadlock Unbroken.

ALBANY, June 18.—This is the off-day of the week at the capital and the proceedings of the convention excite but a languid interest. Most of the leaders in the great struggle are away, and the rank and file without their inspiriting presence are very dull indeed. Were it not for the shackles of the joint convention which bind the members of the Legislature they would be away, one and all, today, and Albany would be left to its primitive village dullness and insipidity. The host of spectators has vanished, and there being no session of the Bribery Investigating Committee, the lobbyist and his myrmidons have betaken themselves to other scenes. Ex-Senator Conkling's absence in New York has caused a begira of the stalwarts from this city, and there are numerous gaps also in the ranks of their opponents. At noon Lieutenant Governor Hoskins called the joint convention together in the Assembly Chamber to take the eighteenth ballot and to endeavor to break the deadlock which has lasted all this month. The galleries were almost empty, and the roll of the members showed that the number of absentees was greatly increased.

Short Term.

The eighteenth ballot for the short term (Conkling vacancy) was first taken. The result was as follows:—

Whole number of votes cast	165
Necessary to a choice	83
Conkling	20
Wheeler	29
Cornell	5
Lapham	13
Fulger	1
Jacobs	34
Crowley	2
Tremaine	1

Spinola's Announcement.

During this rollcall General Spinola convulsed the House with laughter by rising in his place and remarking, "I am requested to state to this joint convention that until next Tuesday morning Charley Edwards is paired with Jimmy Davis."

Lieutenant Governor Hoskins reprimanded Spinola by saying, "No one knows better than the gentleman from New York that such remarks are entirely out of order and beneath the dignity of this joint body."

"Then I withdraw them," answered back the irrepressible Spinola.

Long Term.

The ballot for the long term (Mr. Platt's vacancy) was announced as follows:

Whole number of votes cast	165
Necessary to a choice	83
Platt	17
Depew	44
Cornell	5
Wheeler	1
Kernan	34
Crowley	3
Lapham	1

The convention then adjourned until Monday.

Democratic Resolution to Adjourn the Legislature Defeated.

Another spirited debate took place this morning over Mr. Patterson's (Democrat) resolution to adjourn the Legislature at three o'clock today. Mr. Patterson made a vigorous speech, in which he depicted the disgraceful condition of affairs as exhibited through the probings of the Barber Investigating Committee. He also called attention to the evidence presented yesterday which implicates the President of the United States in an attempt to influence the election of United States Senators and the efforts made by the committee to throw mud at one particular faction of the party. Nothing could be gained by continuing the Legislature in attendance upon this committee.

Mr. Lord, (Rep.) of Erie, opposed the passage of the resolution, arguing that the Legislature should not adjourn until the two Senators were elected. After some further debate the resolution was laid upon the table by a vote of 51 to 31.

A $200,000 Blaze.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 18. The Miami Oil and Soap works, the property of Mr. J. J. Gest, were totally destroyed by fire this morning. The loss was $200,000. The insurance was only $60,000. The New York companies interested are the Lamar, Hoffman, Westchester and Star.

Shooting Himself Through the Heart.

CINCINNATI, June 18. James Liska, twenty years of age, a shoemaker, of No. 558 West Nineteenth street, committed suicide this afternoon in Frosh's saloon, at No. 31 West Twenty-second street, by shooting himself in the heart. The act was undoubtedly premeditated, as he bought a pistol in the morning. Of late he was very despondent.

Indians and Students.

EAST HOOVER, Conn., June 18.—This morning the party of twenty Indians, of both sexes, who arrived in this city last evening from New York took the train up the Housatonic road for Stockbridge, Mass. They are students from the Agricultural Institute at Hampton, Va., and will spend the summer among the Massachusetts farmers, the boys receiving instruction in agricultural pursuits, the girls in housework. They were accompanied by teachers and attendants.

THE ELIZABETH TRAGEDY.

Miss Walker Resting Quietly. Her Injuries Not Considered Fatal.

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 18. Miss Fanny Walker, who was shot yesterday at her dressmaking establishment, corner of Broad and West Jersey streets, by her insane lover, Martin Magie, who immediately afterward killed himself, was resting quietly this afternoon, and the physician attending her has every hope of her recovery. She slept soundly from two to eight o'clock this morning, taking sufficient rest to enable her to rally from the severe shock to her nervous system, occasioned by the terrible tragedy in which she was a principal actor. The wound, although serious, is not considered fatal. The bullet, which entered the left side, just under the shoulder blade, has been probed for but has not yet been found. There were five shots fired altogether, two of which Magie fired at Miss Walker, and the other three at himself, only two of which took effect, one in the side and the other in the brain. The county physician considered that no inquest was necessary and gave a permit for the burial of Magie. The funeral will take place at two o'clock on Monday from the homestead of his family in Uniontown, between Roselle and El Mora, where Magie lived on his father's farm. Magie was twenty-five years of age. He had previously shown symptoms of insanity, and a few years ago was temporarily confined in the State Asylum at Morristown. His family, who are highly respected, are thrown into great grief by the unfortunate affair.

SAVED FROM THE GALLOWS.

The Termination of the Monticello Murder Trial.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., June 18.—Early this morning it was announced that the jury in the Gerhardt murder trial had agreed, and the court room was densely crowded when the court opened. The jury came in at nine o'clock, and amid a silence audible rendered a verdict of murder in the second degree. Great surprise was generally expressed, bets having been freely made that the verdict would be murder in the first degree. Judge A. M. Osborn, after a pathetic address to the weeping prisoner, sentenced him to confinement at hard labor in Clinton Prison, at Dannemora, for the rest of his natural life. The verdict gives great dissatisfaction, as the popular feeling is very bitter against Gerhardt. During the pronouncing of the sentence almost the entire jury wept. Many spectators were unable to restrain their tears. Gerhardt, who remained convulsed with emotion, was removed from the court. He has an uncle and aunt living in the city of New York.

WASHINGTON.

The Yorktown Celebration.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The Yorktown Congressional Committee is at work here. The complete program has finally been determined upon. There have been some minor changes. The oration by Hon. Robert C. Winthrop is to be delivered October 19. Fully fifteen thousand troops are expected to be in line, of which the army will furnish 4000. Two regiments of the French troops will be present. The Secretary of the Commission has received responses from the following New England Governors:—Gov. Bigelow, of Connecticut, will be present with his staff and a regiment of troops, Gov. Farnham with his staff and two companies of National Guards; Gov. Bell will represent New Hampshire; Gov. Littlefield, Rhode Island. Massachusetts is reported to have shown the greatest interest of any state, and will be represented by her Governor and military staff, officers of the Executive Department, a legislative committee, and at least a battalion of four companies of state militia.

The Question of Senatorial Elections.

The action of the New Hampshire Legislature in the matter of postponing the election of Senator calls attention to the case of Randall Gibson of Louisiana. He was elected in January, 1880, for a term which does not begin until March 4, 1883, more than three years in advance. This action is based upon the fact that the Legislature of Louisiana which succeeds the Legislature that elected Gibson will not convene for four years. The Republicans, it is said, intend to raise the point against Mr. Gibson that his election is illegal.

Virginia Politics.

The report as to the meeting between the President and the straight-out Republicans yesterday is colored too much by the wishes of the committee to be a correct report of the facts. There is the best authority for saying that the President indicated no intention of withdrawing his support from the anti-Bourbons, and that he thought the proper program for the Republicans would be to assist in overthrowing the Bourbons. The President will not recommend the abandonment of the Republican organization, and does not think that not to nominate a straight out ticket would be to abandon the organization.

FOXHALL'S TRIUMPH.

The Amount of the Grand Prize of Paris forwarded to London.

PARIS, June 18.—A remittance for the amount of the grand prize of Paris, 100,000 francs, which was won by the American horse Foxhall on Sunday last, was yesterday forwarded to the Messrs. Weatherby at London.

ESCAPED CONVICTS.

Seven Outlaws who Escaped From a Canadian Train at Large.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 18. The total number of convicts who escaped from the Grand Trunk express train yesterday, so far as can be ascertained, is seven. The small guard in charge had great difficulty in preventing a larger number from getting away. The prisoners were all handcuffed and shackled in pairs, but many of them managed to free themselves. The guard was reinforced on the arrival of the train at Brockville. One convict was captured at Gananoque. Another was seen at Cardinal by Mr. Shaver, the agent. When he tried to arrest him he used a club and placed his pursuers on their defence. When he got about 100 yards away from them he made for the woods, where he is at present.

Booth Returning Home.

LONDON, June 18.—Mr. Edwin Booth, wife and daughter leave Liverpool today on the Bothnia, together with Mr. and Mrs. McVickers and Mrs. Booth's physician and nurse. A large number of friends bade farewell to the distinguished actor and guest at the railway station yesterday. In Liverpool a steam tender has been engaged to transfer Mrs. Booth from the docks of the steamship. Mr. Booth carries with him the sympathy and admiration of London. He will appear in New York under Mr. Abbey's management at Booth's Theatre in the beginning of October, and will afterward make a tour of the country. Negotiations are going on for his reappearance here next May or June, and a season in the English provinces in the following September. In January, 1883, he intends to play in Germany in English with a German company.

Grisecm's Fast of Twenty-one Days.

CHICAGO, June 18.—John Grisecm, who is undertaking a forty-five day's fast, has at noon today completed his twenty-first day. For the first time since the fast began he complains of not feeling well. He says his head is "out quite in shape," but nevertheless he is not discouraged.

THE SUGAR LOBBY.

Startling Details of Corruption Promised at its Investigation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—[Special Dispatch to the Sunday Herald.]—The doings of the late Fernando Wood, chairman of the committee on ways and means, who was probably as corrupt a man as ever sat in Congress, will be shown up next winter when the sugar lobby is investigated. He is the person who is referred to in the reports that have been published.

Gen. Grant to Return to Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 18.—Gen. Grant has engaged hotel rooms for September for himself and suite. The hotels are enlarging for expected American fall business. A trust deed, executed in New York, between the Mexican National Railway and Construction companies, with Louis H. Meyer and Andrew Greene, trustees, for $7,500,000, has been registered here. It is the first time such a deed has been registered in this republic.

General Grant and Congressman Young.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—Thos. L. Young, member of Congress for Ohio, writes to General Grant stating that he (Young) never accused him of being President of a New York bank, but did say that Grant was a director of the United States National Bank, of New York city, and that he (Young) did not say that Grant was receiving a salary in connection therewith. In regard to what is reported as having been said by General Grant that he (Young) had "lied" and had sought to "belittle" him, Young refers to his love for Grant, his services and endeavors in Grant's behalf, and closes by saying:—"There is but one man in this great nation who could ever succeed in 'belittling' the great soldier and statesman, of whom our nation is justly proud, and that man is not, your humble friend, Thomas L. Young."

FOREIGN.

England To Reduce Her Iron Industries.

LONDON, June 18.—An official return states that there are now only 556 blast furnaces in operation in Great Britain out of 967 existing. Preparations are making to reduce the production of iron at Cleveland and in the Durham district to the extent of nearly 1,000 tons weekly.

JOHANN MOST'S CASE DECIDED.

LONDON, June 18.—The Court for Crown Cases Reserved has confirmed, with costs, the conviction of Herr Johann Most, publisher of the Socialist journal Freiheit, who was tried last month in the Central Criminal Court and found guilty of inciting to murder. The Appellate Court consisted of Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, Mr. Justice Denman, Sir William Grove, Sir John Huddleston, and Sir Charles Watkin Williams. The decision is final.

The Liverpool Plot.

LIVERPOOL, June 18.—McKevitt and McGrath, who are charged with attempting to blow up the Town Hall here on the 9th inst., were examined by the government today. The prosecuting solicitor said he did not intend to go into the question of Fenianism, as the case would stand on its own merits. McKevitt, he said, had denied any connection with the Fenians, but the regular delivery at his lodgings of the Irish World, with his printed address, as though he was a regular subscriber, would be proved. An analytical chemist had ascertained that the bomb used in the attempt was filled with nitroglycerine. McGrath's landlady, he said, would prove that he (McGrath) possessed iron piping similar to the bomb, and that he had been secretly engaged in hammering something.

Watching Birmingham.

BIRMINGHAM, June 18. The authorities here are strictly guarding the Town Hall, owing to a warning from London.

A STARTLING RUMOR.

Fall of a Bridge and Death of Five Persons Reported.

NEW YORK, June 19.—It is reported that at Pleasant Valley, a short distance up the Hudson, tonight, five persons were drowned by the falling of a steamboat bridge upon which they were waiting for an excursion boat for this city. No particulars have been received.

Irish Landlords Returning Home.

LONDON, June 19.—The News dispatch from Dublin reports that many resident Irish landlords who left the country have returned, a more peaceable state of things being anticipated.

Another Nihilist Plot Discovered in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—Two Canadian bags, filled with one hundred and fifty pounds of dynamite, have been found under a bridge over the Catherine canal. They measured 21 inches in diameter, and were provided with fuses. Experts pronounce them recently made.

The Sentence of Herr Most Deferred.

LONDON, June 19. On application of Mr. Sullivan, the counsel for the defence, sentence upon Herr Most has been postponed until June 20th.

The Manhattan Elevated Railroad Suit.—Decision of Attorney General Ward.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Attorney General Ward has decided that the case of the state against the Manhattan Elevated Railway must proceed, thus denying the application of the stockholders for a suspension of the suit. He states that, by the statement of the president of the company, it is insolvent, and has been so for more than a year, and under the code of law should be placed in the hands of the receiver. He says: "The action must proceed, where it can be most speedily disposed of, and I hope the defendants will aid me in reaching a trial at the earliest moment practicable, and will not embarrass this important and necessary people's action with further dilatory proceedings."

The "Recognized" Chartered Medical Colleges of New England.

WASHINGTON, June 18. The Commissioner of Education has just prepared, in accordance with law, a revised list of "recognized" chartered medical colleges. Those not recognized are considered fraudulent until proven legitimate. Those of New England, recognized by Commissioner Eaton are:—Medical department, Yale College, New Haven, Ct.; medical school, Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me.; school of medicine, Boston University; College of Physicians and Surgeons, and medical school, Harvard University, Boston; New Hampshire Medical Institution, Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.; medical department, University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt.

No Objections to Foxhall's Victory.

LONDON, June 18.—The Paris correspondent of the Sportsman says the report about an objection to Keene's Foxhall as the winner of the Grand Prize of Paris is entirely untrue. The Messrs. Weatherby had all the requisite papers, including the veterinary certificate of Foxhall, although the French Jockey Club does not require that the certificate shall be lodged in Paris when entries are made abroad. Not only has no formal objection been made, but the remittance for the amount of the Grand Prize has been sent to the Messrs. Weatherby, to be added to Keene's account.

The Springfield Republican calls on Gen. Arthur to resign. One is divided in opinion on whether it wants to get him in a position to use on him the arguments and epithets which it has employed on Mr. Conkling for resigning, or whether it aches for the honor of having a Democratic vice-president of the United States.—[Albany Argus.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS AND THE NEWPORT JOURNAL.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon (Sundays excepted), at the News building, 137 Thames street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, and a complete and comprehensive summary of news,—local and general. The Journal is a large 36 column paper and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from the city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week, payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $2 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the whole year is paid strictly in advance. These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines, or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the Daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty-five changes a year. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

Connected with the News is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

MONDAY, JUNE 20, 1881.

Bathing at the beach affords rather cold comfort just now.

Sunday, the 19th of June, 1881, has come and gone and the world still exists.

A new spring has been discovered at Saratoga. Of course it is better than any of its predecessors in public favor.

Two more important expeditions have set out for Arctic exploration, making four in all to represent this country in the ice-fields of the North.

Base Ball Saturday—At Boston—Chicagos, 5; Bostons, 1. At Worcester—Worcesters, 5; Clevelands, 0. At Providence—Detroits, 10; Providence, 3.

The counsel engaged in the Sprague divorce case are expected to hold a formal meeting in Providence today when, it is thought, a date will be decided upon for the trial of the suit.

Twenty civil mining engineers were graduated from the Rensselaer Polytechnic institute, Troy, Wednesday, and it is said they have all obtained lucrative positions in various parts of the country.

Bad examples are contagious. Even the school girls of Fall River have fallen to stealing. Two of them, each about fourteen years of age, have been convicted of burglary in entering and robbing houses.

The Anglo-French Channel Tunnel is to be finished in five years, according to the statement made yesterday in London by Sir Edward Watkin. It would be a coincidence if the Hudson river one should be completed by the same time.

Mrs. Garfield has so far recovered her health as to be able to go to Long Branch for a breath of pure air such as cannot be had at Washington. She wanted to come to Newport and "get the best" but it was too far from home.

The suggestion offered by the Louisville Courier-Journal to Lieutenant Berry, of the Arctic exploring steamer Rodgers, to take possession of Wrangel Land in the name of the United States is a good one, and we hope he heard it before he left for the land of ice.

Emperor Alexander's commutation of the death sentence upon the two Nihilists found guilty at the recent court martial shows a change of heart or a lack of courage. The world hopes that great good will come out of the act to him as well as to his subjects.

At the convention of the New England Missionary Association held in Providence Saturday Rev. S. B. Harris was expelled from the Webster-street Baptist Church of that city, for slandering the convention, and being a party to the writing of a libelous letter.

Gen. Weaver, late Greenback candidate for the Presidency, is visiting his constituents in New England. He received a hearty welcome in Boston and made an earnest and eloquent speech. He still believes the party is bound to succeed and that the monopolists must go to the rear.

On the 25th of July, Lord Colin Campbell, M. P., son of the Duke of Argyle, and brother-in-law to the Princess Louise, will marry Miss Blood, the daughter of Victoria Woodhull. This notorious woman is thus to be closely allied to the royal family of England. Wonders will never cease.

While Mayor Slocum thinks the Sanitary Protection Society is "too large" for Newport, the state Board of Health are of the opinion that it has done great service to the city and that similar associations should be organized in the other towns of the state. The state board, in its annual report, after having heard the Mayor and other parties at length, fully endorses the society and commends its work.

A Philadelphia Councilman resigned his seat recently giving as his reason therefor that the odium attached to the Common Council made it an undesirable place for any man who had his living to make. This at first looks bad for the City Government of Philadelphia but when it is remembered that the fellow in question keeps a low concert hall which is denounced almost unanimously by the press of that city as the worst den in the country it looks very much as though he was compelled by the public to resign his position.

A final decision has been rendered in the case of Herr Johann Most, editor of the London Freiheit, who was convicted of inciting to assassination. Sentence has been deferred to June 29th. This is the first case, probably, in which England has abridged the right of asylum and freedom of the press in connection with political affairs. Thus one by one England's bulwarks and boasts of liberty are being swept away and obliterated, first in the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus in Ireland, and now by an infringement of the rights of the press in her very capital. It is evident that she is herself slowly but surely crumbling away. So mote it be.

Hon. Roscoe Conkling, it is said, proposes to head a new political party and be its candidate at the next presidential election. He is a good lawyer and a good citizen and had better retire to his pleasant home in Utica and leave politics alone. His day for party leadership is past and he can never be President of the United States. By his resignation of the Senatorship he voluntarily took a back seat and should be allowed to occupy it to his heart's content.

The drinking fountains purchased by the city of Newport are being put in position. They are said to be the meanest looking things that could be imagined.—[N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

We confess that they are not such drinking fountains as delight some people, for they furnish nothing but sparkling cold water. But if the editor who wrote the above should come to Newport he can find, duly licensed, drinking fountains of another sort that deal out damnation and death to his heart's content. If he looks sharply he can find also many more not licensed, where water is the scarcest thing to be had. Do these "drinking fountains" look any better to this thirsty soul?

Lovers of the bicycle generally look forward to the day, which they claim is not far distant, when every man shall wheel himself to and from his business, to the disgust of railway companies. But a French electrician has discovered a trick worth two of that. He has succeeded in driving an English tricycle—something like a boy's velocipede—for an hour along the streets of Paris by means of electricity stored in a "secondary battery" and two small Deprez electric motors. The vehicle with its occupant weighed four hundredweight, and it was driven at the speed of an ordinary cab. By improving the mechanism the inventor hopes to raise the speed to twelve miles an hour, and it is claimed that the modification of the Planté battery recently made by M. Faure will furnish a supply of electricity capable of working the tricycle for many hours.

Since General Grant's letter to Senator Jones attacking the President was published, and in view of the numerous criticisms which the General by means of numberless interviews has made public, is it not strange that General Grant does not give to the press a letter addressed to him upon the subject now in controversy by President Garfield. At the time that the letter of General Grant to Senator Jones was printed, the announcement was made that the Senator had also received and delivered a letter from Gen. Grant to the President. It was declared that it was equally decided in its expressions regarding the President as the letter to Senator Jones. Although doubts were expressed at the time about the existence of such a letter, the statement that it was received and delivered was true; but it is also true that President Garfield wrote at length to General Grant in reply, taking direct issue with him upon the position which he assumed in the letter, and pointing out to him wherein he had written from incorrect information. Abundant time has elapsed since the letter from the President to General Grant was mailed for it to reach the latter, even if it did not reach the City of Mexico until after General Grant had left. The friends of the President who are aware of the existence of this letter, and, in general terms, of its character, express much indignation over the late attacks of General Grant upon the President, which have, none of them, contained even a hint that the President has presented his side of the case to General Grant very fully and in clear and forcible terms. They feel that General Grant cannot withhold that letter after the publication of his own to Senator Jones, supplemented as that and the one sent directly to the President have been by the late denunciatory interviews.

Young people marry their opposites in temperament and general character and such marriages are generally good ones. They do it instinctively. The young man does not say, "My black eyes require to be wed with blue and my over-vehemence requires to be a little modified with somewhat of dullness and reserve." When these opposites come together to be wed they do not know it, but each thinks the other just like himself. Old people never marry their opposites: they marry their similars and from calculation. Each of these two arrangements is very proper. In their long journey these opposites will fall out by the way a great many times, and charm the other back again, and by and by they will be agreed as to the place they will go to, and the road they will go by and both become reconciled. The man will be nobler and larger for being associated with so much humanity unlike himself, and she will be a nobler woman for having manhood beside her, that seeks to correct her deficiencies and supply her with what she lacks, if the diversity be not too great, and if there be real generosity and love in their hearts to begin with. The old bridegroom, having a much shorter journey to make, must associate himself with one like himself. A perfect and complete marriage is, perhaps, as rare as perfect personal beauty. Men and women are married fractionally, now a small fraction, then a large fraction. Very few are married totally, and they only, I think, after some 40 or 50 years of gradual approach and experiment. Such a large and sweet fruit is a complete marriage, that it needs a very long summer to ripen in and then a long winter to mellow and season. But a real happy marriage of love and judgment between a noble man and woman is one of the things so very handsome that, if the sun were as the Greek poets fabled, a god, he might stop the world in order to feast his eyes with such a spectacle.—[Theodore Parker.

A SHAKESPEREAN DISCOVERY.

A well known lover of Shakespeare in England has found various matters of interest in some old Warwickshire documents just brought to light. Perhaps only a most enthusiastic Shakesperean, however, can see any vital importance in the announcement that during the poet's youth, his uncle Henry rented a considerable quantity of land under Bartholomew Hales at Snitterfield, and, by a chain of curious evidence, the exact site of his farm has been ascertained. It was situated on the brow of the hill near the church, skirting the road to Luscombe. As Snitterfield is within an easy walk of Stratford-on-Avon, the youthful Shakespeare must have been very familiar with the locality.

A MARINE NOVELTY. Yesterday afternoon and early in the evening quite a novelty in the marine line was seen in the harbor, and attracted quite an audience. It was a marine bicycle, a new invention, ridden by Mr. Chas. F. Handy, the agent for the machine in Rhode Island. The craft was built similar to a catamaran, the two boats being about twenty feet long and several inches wide, bound together by five supports. In the centre was a bicycle saddle, back-bone, forks and treadles, which operated a twelve-inch propeller, placed astern. The machine is the invention of Major Esch, of Portsmouth, N. H. It can be driven at the rate of eight miles an hour, and can be run in heavy seas. It will be exhibited on the Fourth of July in the harbor. A trio-cycle or three-wheeled machine, ridden by three men, was seen on the avenue yesterday, and an "Xtra" bicycle, ridden by Mr. J. C. Dyer, of Providence. Both machines will be on exhibition today.

RESTRAIN THE RUM TRAFFIC.

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

If you have any influence with the Aldermen and Council, pray make use of it now, and try to stop the increase of shops where liquor is sold to be drunk upon the premises. In 1878-79 57 licenses were granted and in 1880-81 there were 79, an increase of 22, or 40 per cent., not warranted by the increase of population, and if it is true, as I am informed on competent authority, that there are at least thirty unlicensed groggeries in full operation regardless of the law, we have here one grog shop to every 137 of inhabitants, putting the population of Newport at 15,000. Deducting one half for women and one half again for children and decent people who do not go to such places and we get one liquor shop to 34 customers—a ratio which is indeed not quite up to the New York standard of vice, but nearly approximate to it. One can see that the city is beginning to be disfigured by these places. Between Bath road and Pelham street on Bellevue avenue there are five in active operation within five hundred feet. Ladies and children can not pass from old Newport to the cottages on the Cliffs without running the gauntlet of these establishments and of the bummers who air themselves in front of them. Newport has certainly many advantages to attract residents, but it is also easy to drive them away, and I know of no surer method than to encourage drinking with its accompanying noise, rudeness, fighting and vice.

A SUMMER RESIDENT.

SPELLING AND LANGUAGE.

Spelling and the reform of spelling are problems which concern every student of the science of language. It does not matter whether the language be English German or Dutch. In every written language the problem of reforming its antiquated spelling must sooner or later arise; and we must form some clear notion whether anything can be done to remove or alleviate a complaint inherent in the very life of language. If my friends tell me that the idea of a reform of spelling is entirely Quixotic, that it is a mere waste of time to try to influence a whole nation to surrender its historical orthography and to write phonetically, I bow to their superior wisdom as men of the world. But as I am not a man of the world, but rather an observer of the world, my interest in the subject, my convictions as to what is right and wrong, remain just the same. It is the duty of scholars and philosophers not to shrink from holding and expressing what men of the world call Quixotic opinions; for, if I read the history of the world rightly, the victory of reason over unreason, and the whole progress of our race, have generally been achieved by such fools as ourselves "rushing in where angels fear to tread," till after a time the track becomes beaten, and even angels are no longer afraid. I hold and have confessed, much more Quixotic theories on language than this belief—that what has been done before by Spaniards and Dutchmen, what is at this very moment being done by Germans, namely to reform their corrupt spelling, may be achieved even by Englishmen and Americans.

I have expressed my belief that the time will come when not only the various alphabets and systems of spellings, but many of the languages themselves which are now spoken in Europe, to say nothing of the rest of the world, will have to be improved away from the face of the earth and abolished. Knowing that nothing rouses the ire of a Welsh-man or a Gael so much as to assert the expediency, nay, necessity of suppressing the teaching of their languages at school, it seems madness to hint that it would be a blessing to every child born in Holland, in Portugal, or in Denmark—nay, in Sweden and even in Russia—if, instead of learning a language which is for life a barrier between them and the rest of mankind, they were at once to learn one of the great historical languages which confer intellectual and social fellowship with the whole world. If, as a first step in the right direction, four languages only, namely English, French, German, Italian (or possibly Spanish), were taught at school, the saving of time—and what is more precious than time—would be infinitely better than what has been effected by railways and telegraphs. But I know that no name in any of the doomed languages would be too strong to stigmatize such folly. We should be told that a Japanese only could conceive such an idea; that for a people deliberately to give up its language was a thing never heard of before; that a nation would cease to be a nation if it changed its language; that it would in fact, commit the "happy dispatch," à la Japonaise. All this may be true, but I hold that language is meant to be an instrument of communication, and that in the struggle for life the most efficient instrument of communication must certainly carry the day, as long as natural selection, or, as we formally call it, reason, rules the world.—[Prof. Max Muller.

They had been engaged to be married fifteen years, and still he had not mustered up courage enough to ask her to name the happy day. One evening he called in a particularly spoony frame of mind, and asked her to sing him something tender and touching, something that would "move" him. She sat down at the piano and sang:—"Darling, I am growing old."—Brooklyn Eagle.] It moved him to go for a younger girl, no doubt.

ARMY AND NAVY NOTES.

Capt. C. P. Eakin has been granted a short leave of absence.

The Constitution will cruise during the summer chiefly on Long Island Sound.

Lieut. Com. Charles J. Train has been detached from the Naval Academy and placed on waiting orders.

1st Lieut. W. P. Van Ness has been transferred from Battery B. to Battery C. vice 1st Lieut Murray from Battery C. to Battery B.

A new steamer is to be built for the Fish Commission, which will be capable of ocean navigation; and the project of transporting shad to European waters will, no doubt, then be attempted. The Fish Commission is becoming one of our most important national and philanthropic institutions.

In the case of Captain Houston, United States Marine Corps, who was nominated and confirmed by the Senate to be a major subject to examination, the Attorney General has decided that Major Houston is entitled to his promotion without examination, as there is no law making a preliminary examination a condition precedent to a promotion in the marine corps.

The following order issued to the naval cadets by the new superintendent should be read by everybody:—

U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY,
ANNAPOLIS, M. D., June 14, 1881.

Order No. 1.

The experiment of permitting the Naval Cadets to smoke at the Naval Academy having been fairly tried for nearly three years, has been found injurious to their health, discipline, and power of study. The medical officers of the Academy and the Academic Board urge, in the strongest terms, that this permission to smoke be revoked. Therefore, with the consent of the Honorable the Secretary of the Navy, I have to forbid the further use of tobacco by the Naval Cadets, and to declare that the prohibition to tobacco, contained in paragraph 169 of the Naval Academy regulations, will be strictly enforced.

C. R. P. RODGERS,
Rr. Ad. Supt.

Mr. August Belmont claims to have been treated with great disrespect and grossly insulted by Sergeant Keating, when he called at the West 30th street Police Station to inquire about a prisoner. It appears that at 1 o'clock on the morning of the 7th inst. Percival L. Drayton, of the United States Navy, was arrested by Patrolman David Stoddard, of the Twenty-ninth Precinct, for kicking over an ash barrel and scattering the contents in the street. He was locked up in the station-house, charged with the violation of a corporation ordinance, for which he was subsequently fined $3 by Justice Bixby. After Drayton had been locked up, Mr. Belmont, accompanied by some friends of the prisoner, called at the station house to inquire about him, and it was on this visit that Mr. Belmont claims that Keating, who was in command, treated him with discourtesy and insulted him.—[N. Y. Times, June 17.

THE BASILICAS OF ROME.

The Christian basilicas arose largely out of the spoils of heathen buildings, and not uncommonly on the sites of heathen temples. The columns of the churches were commonly the columns of earlier buildings used up again. But their architects seem seldom to have made use of the columns of the temples on the site of which they were building. The fact is that the columns of the temples were seldom suited for that purpose. The columns of the portico of a temple, columns which, with their entablature, made up the full height of the wall, were too lofty to be employed in the inside of a church which came at all short of the very greatest scale. Translated to the inside of the basilica, the column had to bear its arch, perhaps a stilt between its abacus and the arch, to bear the clerestory range above, and the space between arcade and clerestory devoted to mosaics or other kinds of enrichment. Sometimes, again, in the Christian, as in the heathen, basilica there was one arcade or colonnade above another. Smaller columns than those of the temples had therefore to be used for all but the very greatest churches, and we thus get the curious sight of churches built on the sites of ancient temples, out of the spoils of ancient temples, but with the columns of the temples on whose site they stand remaining unused and embedded in the walls. This may be seen at St. Mary in Cosmedin, where five stately columns of the original temple are built up in the western and northern walls. It is almost more striking at St. Nicolas in Carcere, where the church—one of no great size—takes in parts of three neighboring temples, with columns of different orders. In both churches the arcades rest on much smaller columns, doubtless brought from somewhere else. Had the columns of the original porticoes been used for the churches, the churches must have been built on the scale of the Lateran or the Vatican basilica.

CURIOSITIES OF VACCINATION.

A Detroit (Mich.) doctor who has vaccinated over 500 persons reports many odd experiences with subjects under the lancet. Not more than two out of ten have it done in a straightforward way. They hesitate, make inquiries, and postpone it a few days. One insisted upon being strapped fast to his chair while the operation was being performed. Another wanted to take chloroform. A negro was one day seen to walk by the office several times, and the doctor finally walked to the door and asked him if he wanted to be vaccinated. "Deed, sah, dat's what I cum for," he replied, "but de berry minit I turned dat corner de blamed thing quit aching!" As a rule men, when they feel the lancet, cry "Woosh!" or "Thunder!" The women cry "Ouch!" generally, but now and then one screams, "Oh, Lordy!" Children have to be flattered, coaxed or scared into submission.

There is a singular irrepressibility about Sarah Bernhardt. Her name is constantly gliding off the tip of the pen of the ready writer. People imagine that the reception that the Doña Sol received at Havre was unparalleled. Not at all; the famous singer Mlle. de Saint-Huberti of the Opera had still greater triumphs. In 1785 Mlle. de Saint-Huberti left the Opera after a quarrel with her manager just as Sarah left the Français last year. She went to Marseilles and gave twenty-two performances which terminated with an aquatic fete. Mlle. de Saint-Huberti was dressed on that day à la grecque. She arrived at the scene of the fete in an eight-oared gondola bearing the flag of the town of Marseilles. The water was black with boats; there were fireworks and salvos of artillery. Then after the aquatic fete there was a tournament on shore, and the people danced around Mlle. de Saint-Huberti to the sound of tambourines and galoubets, while she, reclining on a kind of divan, received like a queen the homage of the spectators. Afterward she was taken to a maison de plaisance, where a piece was performed which had been written in honor of this divinity of the opera by a Provencal poet. After the ball which followed this piece Mlle. de Saint Huberti was placed on a dais between Melpomene and Polymnia. Finally there was a splendid supper of sixty covers, served in a room open on all sides, and into which the people crowded to see the heroine, and the fete ended amidst fireworks, salvoes of artillery and general enthusiasm.—[Parisian.

THE RUSSIAN PANSLAVISTS' PROGRAM.

Aksakow is the leader of the Panslavists in Russia. His organ, Ross, publishes in an article the following program of the party:

God save us from any and all action which might be construed into a concession toward European liberalism. Russia needs its aristocracy as a close connection between her Czar and the people. Napoleon I. said: "If I were the Czar of Russia I would let my beard grow, put on my kaftan, and conquer the world." If the Emperor would represent nothing more than a Russian Czar after the old fashion, and if he would look for his support on Russian soil (not among the liberals, but among the great taciturn Russian masses) then he would be victorious over his enemies, and the new Russia would soon attain the acme of her glory and power. In order to gain this object we recommend the abandonment of Western culture, and that we return to the status as it existed before Peter the Great, who foolishly directed the development of Russia into wrong channels. But above all we assert that Moscow shall still be the capital of Holy Russia. In that ancient city the mute monuments of Russia's ancient greatness will inspire us with advice as to our future actions. In that city our imperial authority will soon comprehend that all those silly political notions imported from Western Europe stand in direct opposition to the feelings and spirit of the Russian people.

The lawn of Grace Church Rectory, the most beautiful place on all Broadway, is suffering from the improvement epidemic, and now is nothing less than a ploughed field. If you have ever shopped at McCreery's or Stewart's, or lunched at the Vienna Bakery, you have noticed Grace Church Rectory standing peacefully at the back of a shrub-dotted lawn, a hundred feet or more from the eager crowd hustling up and down Broadway. Days when I have been tired and worried, riding in a stage or walking past that one quiet spot, in all the turmoil I have looked in over the iron fence to the white Gothic rectory, and the sight of it has acted like a soothing draught. Now, the iron fences are torn down, and workmen have possession of the place. Trenches are being dug, and, altogether, it is so disturbed and uprooted that one would scarcely recognize it. In the midst of the debris stands Parsons, the Flushing landscape gardener, his hands full of plans, giving orders to the workmen. Out of chaos he is going to bring forth a fairyland, and the lawn that has spread its grassy length down to the noisy street for so many years is to undergo a transformation that no one but a landscape gardener could imagine. They say that the Rev. Dr. Potter, who lives in this beautiful rectory, had his eye on a bishopric a short time ago, but that the fact of his driving around Newport in a dog-cart, dressed in a white flannel suit, was too great a scandal for some influential churchmen to tolerate, and his name was never allowed to appear in any role but that of candidate for the office. Now, why a clergyman should not drive a dog-cart and be as pious as though he drove a buggy or a milk-cart I do not see, nor do I see anything impious in white flannel. But, then, I am not a deacon, nor an elder; perhaps, if I were, I should think differently. The difference between tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee is often more decided than we outsiders imagine.—[N. Y. Cor. Boston Gazette.

THE BOSS OF THE FAMILY.

A real clean, nice looking old couple were at the Union depot waiting for a train going south. The husband was nearly seventy years old and pretty lively, and the wife was only a year or two behind him, with a voice that meant business every time she opened her mouth. There was considerable political talk around the depot, and the old man at once became interested. "I've been over in Canada in the woods for the last two weeks and I hain't heard a thing," he exclaimed. "Is the 'lection over with?" "Yes," replied one of the men. "Many riots and knock downs?" "Thousands of them." "I used to be the worst man around the polls you ever see," continued the old gent as he spit on his hands. "I've seen the time it took four constables to hold me." "Peter, what are you doing here?" asked the old lady as she suddenly appeared. "Finding out about politics." "What kind?" "All kinds." "Well, you let politics alone and come into the waiting room." "Purty soon. So they had riots and knocking downs, eh? Lord! don't I wish I had been around!" "Peter!" called the wife. "Yes, I'm here. I suppose the candidates set up the drinks, didn't they?" "Oh, yes." "Great snakes! But I wish I'd been over here. Take it along about forty years ago, and after I had three drinks down it took the whole Whig party to hold me. My great hold was in cleaning out the voting place and walking off with the ballot-box." "Peter, I want you!" called the wife. "Yes, Nancy. Well, which side——" Peter was choked off right here. Nancy got hold of his collar and lifted his heels off the floor, whirled him around and headed him for the waiting room with the remark:—"After you have lived with me another forty years you'll learn that when I say Peter I don't mean Paul. The idea of your standing out here talking politics when we've got to look around for a piece of bed cord to tie that old satchel up or lose half our duds!"—[Hartford Times.

One of the Paris papers, in alluding to the present Salon, thus notices Bouguereau's pictures: "They are marvels of drawing, of coloring, of finish, and yet they are utterly uninteresting. A machine could not produce work of more unvarying perfection, and like machine work Bouguereau's work has no personality and no humanity in it. It is produced coldly and methodically for the benefit of the dealers, especially of the American dealers. The two pictures exhibited by him this year have been painted for two New York dealers. The American patronage of French art would be more beneficial both to France and America if it were really a patronage of art instead of a patronage of fashionable names."

A Philadelphia woman says that the new New Testament is "perfectly horrid" and she should suppose that those fellows who got it up would expect to suffer all the penalties laid down in the Bible for altering one jot or tittle thereof. She declares, moreover, that she wouldn't dare have the thing in the house, anyhow.

As one investigation after another at Washington comes to a head, the wisdom of a new broom every four or six years becomes plain. Even the Hayes house cleaning left some dust in the corners.—[Springfield Republican.

THE LEGEND OF MISS KI.

The Chinese have a story answering very closely to the popular and, as one might suppose, national legend of St. George and the dragon. In the eastern version, however, the conqueror of the dragon is a heroine named Ki, distinguished for her filial piety and courage. The monster, as the Chinese story goes, had devoured nine maidens, and was clamorous for more victims, but none could be found willing to satisfy its urgent demands. Then Miss Ki expressed her willingness to go to the dread dragon's cavern. Armed with a trusty sword, and accompanied by a dog that was accustomed to attack snakes, she sallied forth, taking with her several measures of boiled rice mixed with honey, which she placed at the mouth of the cavern. "At night the dragon came forth, its head as large as a rice stock and its eyes like mirrors two feet across, when, perceiving the aroma of the mass of rice, it began to devour it. Ki forthwith let loose her dog, which seized the monster in its teeth, and the maiden thereupon hacked the dragon from behind, so that, after dragging itself to the mouth of the cavern, it died.

INTERNATIONAL PAVEMENT CO.
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
WITH A BONUS OF STOCK.
The pavement made by this company has met with the highest favor, both in this country and in Europe, and it is considered to approach perfection more nearly than any other.
The Works of the Company are at Providence, R. I., and at Hastings, N. Y., and the needs of its business will soon require additional ones at Chicago and other large cities.
Negotiations are now pending with capitalists in London and Paris for the right to manufacture and use this pavement in those cities.
Few enterprises now on the market promise as profitable business as this one.
The company require additional means to extend their facilities for manufacturing, and offer for sale the second $100,000 of their six per cent. bonds convertible into stock at par and interest. These bonds carry a bonus of stock, which is fixed for the present at FIFTY PER CENT.

SUNDRIES.

You cannot move some people. They are even too heavy to be lead.—[Boston Courier.

She cooed; he wooed; the old man said they could if they would. No cards.—[Detroit Chaff.

A man says, "I have no time," and then pulls out his watch and gives the time to whosoever asks it.—[Boston Transcript.

An old angler says that a fish does not suffer much pain from being hooked. Of course not. It is the thought of how his weight will be lied about which causes him anguish.

Clergyman—"No, my dear; it is impossible to preach any kind of a sermon to such a congregation of asses." Smart young lady—"And is that why you call them 'Dearly beloved brethren?'"—[Columbia Spectator.

"There's one thing I like about the new version," said old Blunderbuss. "That ere text about 'the boy being father to the man' is left out altogether. I always thought that was wrong end to." And he didn't know why the smile went round.—[New Haven Register.

Tommy went fishing the other day without permission of his mother. Next morning a neighbor's son met him, and asked, "Did you catch anything yesterday, Tommy?" "Not till I got home," was the rather sad response.

The summer resorts, it is said, are generally paying particular attention to drainage. Jones, who knows what he is talking about, says they always did pay particular attention to drainage. They drained his wallet pretty effectually wherever he has been.—[Boston Transcript.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser gives the song of the youthful apple-peddler at the country railway stations in Pennsylvania:—"Apple! Sapple! Sappals! Sapples! Two for five. Napple, mister? Mister, rapple? Wan tanaple, mister? Six for five cents! Fre sheat nappuls; ni seatin napples, seven foranmickle! Napple, mister? Mister wantanapple? Wantsmappuls, mister? Nine furannickle? Here's yourappulls! Ten furnnickle!"

They were two crafty and cautious old vags. They met in the alley, looked each other over, and one of them queried, "Say, do you chew?" He did, but he didn't want to spare any. He therefore replied, "Yes, I chew gum." "Sorry," continued the other, as he hauled out a fine large plug and held it up to the light. "I don't use the weed myself, and I was going to give this to you. If I find any gum in any of my travels through the alleys, I'll bear you in mind. Tra-la."

A Modern Miracle

THE MOST MARVELOUS EXPERIENCE OF ONE OF BOSTON'S LEADING CITIZENS.

How it Occurred.—His Description of the Circumstances and the Overwhelming Testimony of Prominent Witnesses.

[Boston Globe, Dec. 8th.]

The readers of this paper were more or less amazed at a most remarkable statement from one of our leading citizens which appeared in yesterday's issue. So unusual were the circumstances connected with it, and so much comment did it occasion on the street and in social circles, that a representative of this paper was commissioned to investigate its details and verify its facts. The article referred to was a statement made by Mr. B. F. Larrabee, of the New York and Boston Dispatch Express Company, that after having lain at the point of death for more than three weeks, given up by both physicians and friends, he had completely and wonderfully regained his usual health. Mr. Larrabee was found in his private office on Arch street, and upon being questioned said:

"Well, sir, logically, I have been dead, but really, I am as you see me. A little over a year ago, I was taken sick, but I allowed the illness to run along until on the 28th day of October, 1859, I fell prostrate while walking along Tremont street. I was carried home and did not go out of the house until the middle of December. I then went down town and attempted to attend to my business until the 13th of last January, when I was taken with a very severe relapse. My symptoms were terrible. I was fearfully bloated; I suffered severe pains in all parts of the body and it was almost impossible to get my breath. For six days I never laid down and never slept. I was constantly attended by my regular physician, Doctor Johnson, and Doctor Bowditch also came to see me nearly every day. There was no doubt that I was suffering from Bright's disease of the Kidneys in its worst form and last stages, accompanied by other troubles in my liver and heart. In spite, however, of the skill of the physicians, I kept growing worse and finally they tapped my side in the vicinity of the heart, taking away forty-six ounces of water. This relieved me for the time, but I soon became as bad as before. Then the doctors gave me up entirely, declared I could not live more than twenty-four hours and my daughter, who was residing in Paris, was telegraphed for. Still I lingered along for several weeks, far more dead than alive, but never giving up hope. One night—it was on the 20th of April, I very well remember—my attendant, who was reading the paper to me, began an article which described my disease and sufferings exactly. It told how some severe cases of Bright's disease had been cured, and so clearly and sensibly did it state the case that I determined to try the means of cure which it described. So I sent my man to the drug store, procured a bottle of the medicine, unknown to my physicians and friends, and took the first dose at 10 o'clock. At that time I was suffering intensely. I could not sleep; I had the short breaths and could scarcely get any air into my lungs. I was terribly bloated from head to foot, and the motion of my heart was irregular and painful. The next morning I was able to breathe freely; the pain began to leave me and the bloating decreased. I continued to take the medicine, and today, sir, I am as well as I ever was in my life, and wholly owing to the wonderful, almost miraculous power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. I do not know what this medicine is made of, or anything else about it, but I know it saved my life when I was given up by the doctors and had really been dead for weeks; that it has kept me in perfect health ever since and has cured many of my friends to whom I have recommended it. There are a number of very remarkable cases in Lynn and Salem, as well as in this city, that it has cured. My recovery is so remarkable that it has excited much attention, and physicians as well as others have investigated it thoroughly. I am glad they have, for I feel that the results of such a wonderful cure should be known to the thousands in all parts of the land who are suffering from troubles of the kidneys, liver, or heart in some of their many dangerous forms."

The representative of the press thanked Mr. Larrabee for his frank and clear statement, and was about to leave the office when a gentleman stepped up to him and inquired if he was seeking information about Mr. Larrabee's sickness and recovery. The scribe replied that he was, whereupon the gentleman said:

"And so am I, and I have come all the way from Chicago for that very purpose. Kidney troubles seem to be alarmingly increasing all over the country, and I have a very near relative who is afflicted much as Mr. Larrabee was. I have been to see the physicians of whom Mr. Larrabee speaks, and I tell you, sir, it is simply wonderful."

"What did they say?" asked the man of news.

"Say! why, sir, they fully confirm everything Mr. Larrabee has stated. I went to see Dr. H. A. Johnson, at 20 Worcester street. He was absent when I called and so I stepped into the Commonwealth Hotel where Mr. Larrabee was living at the time of his sickness. Messrs. Brugh & Carter are the proprietors, and I asked them about Mr. Larrabee's case. Mr. Brugh pointed to me the electric annunciator and said, 'why for weeks and weeks every time that bell rang I said: That means the death of Mr. Larrabee. No one around the hotel ever dreamed that he would recover and when the doctors would come down from his room they would shake their heads and say there was no hope. The arrangements for the funeral were all made and his recovery was simply a miracle.'"

I then called on Dr. Johnson who said that Mr. Larrabee's case was a very remarkable one. He was his family physician and expected his death every hour for a number of weeks and never called to see him during that time, but he was prepared for it. The doctor said the recovery was due to Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure and if he had friends, male or female, troubled with albumen or any kidney troubles he should certainly advise them to use this remedy. Dr. Johnson said kidney difficulties are more common than most people think and that many symptoms which are supposed to be other diseases arise from the kidneys. He said that ladies after gestation are specially subject to albuminous troubles which require prompt attention.

Well, I then came down and called on Dr. H. Ingersoll Bowditch on Boylston street. The old doctor was inclined to be reticent but fully confirmed all I had previously learned. He had attended Mr. Larrabee, had supposed him to be beyond all hope, and was afterwards restored, as he said, by Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

I next went to see Dr. Melville E. Webb, at the Hotel Cluny, for you see I was determined to be thorough in the matter. I found Dr. Webb a most clear-headed and well-informed gentleman, and he said:

"I know of Mr. Larrabee's case from having thoroughly investigated it as medical director of a Life Insurance company, and it is one of the most remarkable cases I have ever met. Mr. Larrabee had all the manifestations of a complication of diseases, and in their worst forms. He had albumen and cast in the urine, and a terribly diseased liver and spleen. Indeed, he was so bad that he threw himself upon the floor, and, with his head upon a hassock, struggled for breath. It was on the night when he was so bad and when all his medical advisers had long given him up that he began using Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. The next morning at 10 o'clock he was able to breathe freely, and has been ever since. I subjected him to the most thorough examination possible, after his recovery, and I can't find out about him. His kidneys, liver, lungs and heart are perfectly well and sound. I can only add that, from what I have seen, I should unhesitatingly recommend this remedy."

The conclusion from the statement above made, which came to the newspaper man as well as to the general public, must be two-fold. First, that a modern miracle of healing has been performed in our midst, and that, too, by the simplest means and one which is within the reach of every one; and secondly, that testimonials of such high character and so out-spoken in tone conclusively prove the value of the remedy and its superior nature to the proprietary articles with which the public have been flooded. "The greater includes the less," and the remedy which has been proven so valuable and has saved a life after it was brought down to death's door, must unquestionably be certain in all minor troubles, which are so disastrous unless taken in time.

The Salvator for Invalids and the Aged. An Incomparable Aliment for the Growth and Protection of Infants and Children. A Superior Nutritive in Continued Fevers, and a Reliable Remedial Agent in all Diseases of the Stomach and Intestines.

THIS justly celebrated Dietetic Preparation, is, in composition, principally the GLUTEN derived from the WHITE WINTER FLINT WHEAT CEREAL, a solid extract, the invention of an eminent Chemist. It has not only been highly recommended but certified to by a large number of Chemists and Physicians—representing a very high degree of medical science—as the SAFEST, MOST ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE FOOD FOR THE GROWTH AND PROTECTION OF INFANTS AND CHILDREN, and for Mothers lacking Sufficient Nourishment for their offspring.

Unlike those preparations made from animal or vinous matter, which are liable to stimulate the brain and irritate the digestive organs, it embraces in its elementary composition—

That which makes strong Bone and Muscle. That which makes good Flesh and Blood. That which is easy of Digestion—never constipating. That which is kind and friendly to the Brain, and that which acts as a preventive of those Intestinal Disorders incidental to childhood.

And, while it would be difficult to conceive of anything in Food or Dessert more Creamy or Delicious, or more Nourishing and Strengthening as an aliment in Fevers, Pulmonary Complaints, Dyspepsia and General Debility, its Rare Medicinal Excellence in all Intestinal Diseases, especially in Travelers' Directory.

Newport Line!

SPECIAL NOTICE!

ON MONDAY, JUNE 20, THE STEAMERS

commanded by careful and experienced officers, will commence their trips for the summer season, between New York and Newport. These vessels have undergone a thorough overhauling, and extensive repairs and improvements have been made, greatly increasing their attractions. New carpets have been laid in the saloons. The ventilation of the dining saloon, by mechanical means, rendering the air at all times pure and the room agreeable, is an improvement that will, no doubt, be very much appreciated. Bulkheads have been placed on the Main Deck aft, making that part of the vessel a pleasant resort for smokers. It is the determination of the management to make this a STRICTLY FIRST-CLASS LINE, and nothing will be spared which will add to the comfort and convenience of patrons. It will be run for the accommodation of travel to and from the summer resorts and important points local to the Old Colony Railroad; there will be no Boston connection and is especially designed for the better accommodation of the Newport travel. Double the number of state-rooms, heretofore assigned to that city, have been allotted for the present season.

From NEWPORT, Steamers will leave daily (Sundays excepted), at 8.00 P. M., sharp, and arrive at New York about 6.00 A. M., making sure connections with all lines diverging. It is believed that the certainty of leaving Newport at a fixed hour, by this Line, will be appreciated.

From NEW YORK, Steamers will leave daily (Sundays excepted), at 6.00 P. M., and arrive at Newport about 5.00 A. M. No gong will be rung, and passengers may rest undisturbed until 7.00 A. M.
